

Yellow Springs Senior Citizens

Code of Ethics

(Approved 3/27/2005)

The Code of Ethics of the Yellow Springs Senior Center, Inc. is built on a foundation of honesty, integrity, and the public trust.

The Yellow Springs Senior Center, Inc. is knowledgeable of and complies with all laws and regulations governing non-profit organizations.

The Yellow Springs Senior Center, Inc. has a clearly stated mission and purpose, and the programs and activities reflect the mission and purpose of the organization.

All trustee members, staff, and volunteers, as representatives of the Yellow Springs Senior Center, Inc., must act with honesty, integrity, and openness in accordance with the mission and purpose of the organization, and respect the dignity of individuals and the integrity of the organization.

It is incumbent on all trustees, staff, and volunteers to refrain from personal reference when providing information to the public relative to the business and activities of the organization.